JO AYNsLEY, DESIGN DIRECTOR AT EDINBURGH BASED STUDIO JEFFREYS INTERIORS, REVEALS A FUN AND PLAYFUL SIDE AS SHE SHARES SOME OF HER FAVOURITE DESIGN PIECES

DISCO DISCO

I think living spaces should embody the fun of life and what better than the emblematic disco ball, the icon of the night world. You could even team it up with a disco ball drawing from CJ Hendry.

POP COMMODE

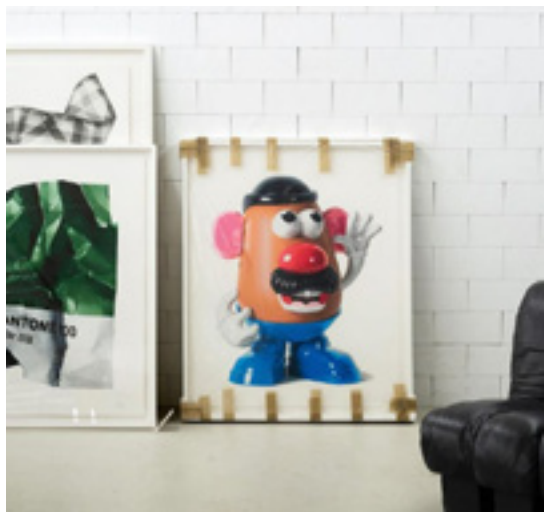

I have a love for a unique form, interesting shapes and contrasting colours. Combining this Kelly Wearstler unit and the HAAS brothers marble sink into a bathroom vanity, would be goals.

NOSTALGIC ARTWORK

I would be happy any piece from her stunning collections although I particularly love Mr Potato Head given it was the first computer game I had; what this lady can do with pencils is nothing short of magic.

CUSTOM CLUB FENDER

I commissioned this custom design with Tom Faulkner for a private residential client using his hand-blown bluey hues colour combined with a navy leather; a modern twist on a traditional piece.

SINK OF ART

I love the playful sense of character that the HAAS brothers create in their art and furniture. The shapes and form of this sink combined with the natural marble mean each one would be different, it's a piece of art in itself.
